State of Rajasthan and ors.

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MOHAMMAD RAFIQ

BY THE COURT:-

This writ petition has been filed by petitioner Lallu Prasad with the grievance that his election filed before the court of learned Additional District and Sessions Judge Dausa is not being decided inspite of the fact that the same is presented before it on 14/3/2005 and it is pending since then before it.

It is argued that the matter is still at the stage of the evidence of the defendant. The prayer is therefore made that the Election Tribunal may decide the said election petition within a period of one month.

In the facts of the case, I do not deem it proper to issue a mandamus directing Election Tribunal as prayed for. However, at the same time, it is impress upon the Election Tribunal to expedite the hearing and decision of the election petition and not to grant unnecessary adjournments that may be prayed for by either of the parties.

The writ petition is dismissed in limine.
